A company is being organized in this city for the purpose of establishing a plant to manufacture Hill's detachable knee and sakie trace. This is a recent invention, which has made a very favorable impression on surgeons. Mr. G. P. Hill, the inventor, was introduced to the Southern Railroad Association, and explained to the body its superior advantages. A few days later hundreds of the visiting surgeons of the International Association were made acquainted with the lavention and the inventor, pronouncing it the best brace they had ever seen. RADFORD.

A Crack Company-Improvements-Marriage Announcement,

EAST RADFORD, VA., June 10 .- (Speclal.)-Company M, of the Fourth Immunes, Captain Hugh C. Preston in command, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Camp Meade, Pa., where it had been mustered out of service. The company was mustered in at Radford in June, 1898, and was made up entirely of men from this section of the State. It left here in June and joined the rest of the regiment at Fredericksburg, where it remained two months, when it went to Camp Cuba Libre, where it took part in the review of the Seventh Army Corps, under General Fitzhugh Lee. The regi-ment embarked on August 12th for Manzanillo, Coba, where it remained until May 1st, when it was ordered home. The regiment made a record, only losing six men in the time of service. Captain Preston's company was the crack company of the regiment, not a man dying, very few sick, and only two men in the guard-house during the time. The car containing the company was placarded, telling who the boys were and where hey were going. All were in excellent health and were glad to get home. Cap-tain Preston did not stop here, but went on to Pocahentas, where a reception will be given the company to-night.

The weather during the past week has been very hot, the thermometer registering 90 degrees Wednesday.

Radford is making steady progress in the past few weeks. The Virgina Iron, Coal and Coke Company is rapidly repairing the pipe-works, prepairing to start the large furnace; has purchased over one hundred houses; fins an option on the Wharton Block, and, it is reported has also purchased over one hundred houses; fins an option on the Wharton Block, and, it is reported has also purchased the electric-light plant. When the various enterprises are started nearly one thousand men will be given employment. Suddenly the electric lights went out, and oil lamps had to be resorted to, proving a very poor substitute. After about an hour the electric lights came on, being greeted with shouts of joy. Things worked very well for a short time, when the circuit was again cut. It was subsequently ascertanced that a live wire was down in Main again cut. It was subsequently ascertamed that a live wire was down in Main street, near the Christian church, and shocked several horses. It was feared that other wires might be down, endangering the lives of passers by, and the manager of the electric-light plant cut off the current rather than incur the risk that was so imminent.

LAST DAY'S SESSION

OF EPISCOPAL COUNCIL, SOUTHERN VIRGINIA DIOCESE.

THE REPORT ON STATE OF CHURCH.

An Encouraging Showing-The Best Methods of Bible Study-Disabled Ctergy-Clerical Support-Dame Me-

The third and last session of the South- dinary diocesan expenses last year, men ern Virginia Episcopal Council was held to-day. The delegates were called to order by Rev. T. M. Carson, D. D., of went to pay stenographers. The remainder was devoted to payment of the tra in the absence of Bishop Randolph, who velling and hotel expenses of the trial was a little late in returning from the Dame Memorial chapel consecration service. Not all the delegates were in attendance at the morning session. A short service of prayer preceded the reading of the minutes of the previous day, which were approved.

On motion, the committee to assess dioesan expenses was discharged, the passage of the canonical amendment last night having taken away its function. The report on the state of the Church was submitted. It notes advancement ber of communicants reported by the parishes, 11,174. A few parish and mission figures are missing, but the report estimates a gain of 1,000 communicants during the year. An increase of 3,000 in the number of tacchers and scholars indicates umber of teachers and scholars indicates activity in Sunday-school work. The in-crease of about $1,000 in the Woman's Auxiliary collections for foreign missions is mentioned. Reference is made to the demand and supply of ministers in the diocese, and the encouraging statement is made that the supply is fully equal to the of it in full was ordered in the Diocesan

The floating debt against the Church amount to $7,241; funded debt, $25,845.
The delegates ceased fanning 20-degree breezes long enough to vote unanimously in favor of a resolution changing the date of meeting of the annual council to the last Tuesday in May. Mr. Fortescu Whittle was re-elected treasurer, and af-ter the passage of the usual resolutions of thanks and the transaction of minor outine business the council adjourned. It will meet next year at Lynchburg, the council having accepted the invitation of council of 1950 in the Hill City.

MEETING OF THE A. P. V. A.

Virginia Antiquities met at Laburnum lamp-lighted interior and the gay comjects upon which the orators of the occajects upon which the orators of the occasion spoke. This meeting of the general association is especially set for June in order to commemorate the first visit of the white man to the "Falls."

After Mr. and Mrs. Bryan welcomed their guests, Mr. Bryan read a poem of Edward Everett Hale's, which seemed a word picture of good John Smith. It began thus:

I only know his name;
I only know he heard God's Word and came:
Brought all he loved across the sea
To live and work for God and me."

Mr. Bryan then introduced Mr. R. L. Traylor, who gave a minute account, drawn from old chroniclers of the voyage of Christopher, Newport, Gabriel Archer. John Smith, and others to the "Falls," or the present site of Richmond. He read extracts from the account written by Gabriel Archer and carried back to England by Christopher Newport, which were full and most interesting. Mr. Traylor himself is an authority on Virginia history, and owns the best collection of "Virginiana" in the State.

Dr. James P. Smith then gave a sketch of John Smith from the time he was an impetuous boy until he, the boid adventurer, gave the touch of life to the Virginia Colony. His words were like the true strokes of a sculptor's chisel. His subject stood out like an exquisite bas-relief against the evidence of this century's attainment, of which John Smith was a factor. Dr. Smith's speech was fully appreciated by his attentive audience.
